

10 BILL OF RIGHTS IN THE KENYAN CONSTITUTION

Chapter Four outlines the fundamental rights and freedoms guaranteed to all individuals in Kenya

01. Right to Life

Everyone has the right to life, and this right should be protected by law.

Everyone is equal before the law and should not be discriminated against based on statuses such as race, gender, ethnicity, and religion.

02. Equality and Freedom from Discrimination

Individuals have the right to express their opinions freely, including the freedom to share information.

03. Freedom of Expression

This encompasses the right to respect, privacy, and freedom from exploitation.

04. Human dignity

05. Freedom of Religion

Free practice of religion practices, and a guarantee of freedom of conscience.

Every child has the right to compulsory basic education.

06. Right to Education

07. Right to Fair Trial

Fair hearing in legal proceedings, ensuring justice is accessible and impartial.

Individuals have right to access healthcare services

08. Right to Health

09. Political Rights

All are able to participate in government, vote, and hold public office.

All have right to work, fair wages, and social security.

10. Social and Economic Rights